

An Evening with Journalist Reza Sayah

October 11th, 5:30-7:30 PM
Stiteler Hall B21

Info Session on Pulitzer Center International Reporting Fellowship to follow

Join us for an evening with veteran CNN correspondent and current freelance journalist in Tehran, Reza Sayah. Throughout his career he has covered major events on location such as the Arab Spring, the Cairo Square riots, and the 2012 flood in Pakistan. Mr. Sayah will be speaking about his experiences and the current state of reporting in the Middle East, as well as the rising tensions between Washington and Tehran.
