

PULITZER CENTER ON CRISIS REPORTING PRESENTS

MIGRATION & IDENTITY

THE PLIGHT OF LIBYA'S MIGRANT WORKERS WITH WILLIAM WHEELER

Please join Pulitzer Center grantee William Wheeler as he discusses the plight of African laborers trapped in Libya after the fall of the Qaddafi regime. Wheeler, who covered the aftermath of the Libyan revolution, was among the first to report in detail the story of the guest workers, mainly from sub-Saharan Africa, who found themselves trapped between a nation that no longer wanted them and the European Union determined to block their attempts to migrate.

January 24, 2012

7:00 PM

Washington University in St. Louis
Danforth University Center
Room 234
St. Louis, MO 63130

Co-presented with International and Area Studies and Sigma Iota Rho, this event is part of the Migration, Identity, and State research initiative in IAS.